The Other Way to Protest: Consumer Confrontations in the Ukrainian-Russian Crisis

Tetiana Bulakh
Monday, April 14
12:15 PM
Ballantine Hall 004

This presentation explores the manner in which the global international crisis finds its reflection in everyday practices and focuses specifically on consumer choices as a symbolic battlefield and boycotts as a manifestation of national identity. Tetiana Bulakh is a doctoral student in Anthropology and a native of Ukraine.

Sponsored by the Russian and East European Institute.
