

Innovation accelerated by Tradition

Indiana University Innovation Center

The new Indiana University Innovation Center is located on East Tenth Street (East State Road 45) approximately one block east of the intersection with the State Road 45/46 Bypass. Parking (P) is available in the lots north and west of the Innovation Center.

The Trustees of Indiana University
President Michael A. McRobbie
Provost Karen Hanson
and
Vice President for Engagement William B. Stephan invite you to celebrate the dedication of the

Indiana University Innovation Center

2719 East Tenth Street

Indiana University Bloomington

Monday, November 9, 2009

10:00 a.m.

The ceremony will be held in the University Gymnasium, directly north of the new center.
A reception and tour will immediately follow the ceremony.
Please see the map on the reverse for directions and parking.

If you have a disability and need assistance, arrangements can be made to suit most needs.
For special requests and/or questions, please telephone (317) 231-2114.