

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
SCHOOL OF PUBLIC AND ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS
INDIANA UNIVERSITY-BLOOMINGTON CAMPUS

Lecturer Position in Public and/or Nonprofit Management

The School of Public and Environmental Affairs (SPEA) at Indiana University seeks to appoint a Lecturer or Senior Lecturer on the Bloomington campus. This is non-tenure track, full-time permanent faculty position with a multi-year commitment and primary obligations in the areas of teaching, teaching-related services, and student advising. SPEA is interested in candidates with strong teaching interests in public, nonprofit and/or cross-sector management. Preference will be given to candidates with a Ph.D. or an equivalent terminal degree in a related field (e.g., public administration, public affairs, public policy, public law) or a related professional degree (MPA or MBA) combined with substantial management and/or teaching experiences. Applicants must present evidence of a strong commitment to high quality teaching and teaching-related services.

SPEA is a multidisciplinary, university-wide division of Indiana University and is organized as a professional school committed to excellence in research, teaching, and service and to addressing critical issues of public policy and management. All faculty members teach required and elective courses at the undergraduate, professional masters, and doctoral levels. SPEA is one of the largest U.S. public affairs schools in the nation with over a total of 70 tenure-track faculty on its two main campuses, Bloomington and Indianapolis. The graduate program consistently ranks among the best in the country.

Review of applications will begin August 1, 2009 and continue until the position is filled. Please submit a letter of application, current vita, supporting documentation of outstanding instructional abilities, complete contact information, and three letters of recommendation electronically to speahr@indiana.edu or a hard copy to:
