

Jonathan Jones

100 E. Main Street • Bloomington, IN 4740
astudent@indiana.edu • (917) 291-1715

---

EDUCATION

School of Public and Environmental Affairs, Indiana University – Bloomington, IN

Master of Public Affairs Candidate, May 2006

Concentration: Nonprofit Management

- Elected first-year representative to SPEA Graduate Student Association

Indiana University – Bloomington, IN

Bachelor of Arts, English, May 2002

Honors & Activities:

- Phi Beta Kappa
- President, Spanish Club
- Advisor, Residence Life

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Children’s Museum of Indianapolis

Development Intern, Summer 2005

- Assisted in the development and implementation of collateral materials for foundations, corporations, individuals and governmental agencies.
- Initialized grant proposal for Youth Towards Technology program, using Foundation Center Online and GuideStar databases.
- Researched data from the latest US Census and other related sources during the initial grant proposal process for the Museum’s Hispanic Initiative.

United States Peace Corps, Talgar, Kazakhstan

Cross-Culture and Language Acquisition Assistant Trainer, 2002 – 2004

- Trained teams of 75+ incoming volunteers during the 11-week Pre-service Training sessions for cross-cultural adaptation and foreign language acquisition.
- Authored a 50-page handbook and conducted workshops to facilitate the adjustment of Americans to Kazakhstani cultures.

LANGUAGES

Fluent in spoken and written English, Spanish, Russian, and Kazakh

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Membership Drive Coordinator, Girls Inc., Bloomington, IN, 2001 – 2002

Peer Mediator, Teeter Residence Hall, Indiana University, 2000 – 2001

Cook, Backstreet Mission, Bloomington, IN, 2004 - Present