THE JOURNAL OF HIS HIGNESS,
THE EMIR OF BUKHARA

BEGINNING WITH A DESCRIPTION OF HIS JOYOUS JOURNEY TO ST. PETERSBURG, BESEECHING THE ALMIGHTY GOD THAT IT ENDS PROSPEROUSLY AND WELL

by

Seid Abd al-Ahad Khan
(r. 1885-1910)

Translated and Annotated by

Meghan White
Christopher Roush

2015
Ad Fontes

Texts on Central Eurasian Societies and Cultures

Editor
Edward J. Lazzerini

Managing Editor
Jackie Breeding

Copy Editor
April Younger

Indiana University Editorial Board

Christopher Atwood, Mongolian Studies
Christopher Beckwith, Inner Asian Studies
Gardner Bovingdon, Uighur Studies
Jamsheed Choksy, Iranian Studies
Devin DeWeese, Central Asian Studies
Kate Graber, Altaic Studies
György Kara, Inner Asian Studies

Paul Losensky, Iranian Studies
Jonathan Schlesinger, Chinese Studies
Ron Sela, Central Asian Studies
Kaya Şahin, Ottoman Studies
Nazif Shahrani, Central Asian and Iranian Studies
Elliot Sperling, Tibetan Studies

Publisher
The Sinor Research Institute for Inner Asian Studies
THE JOURNAL OF HIS HIGHNESS,
THE EMIR OF BUKHARA

BEGINNING WITH A DESCRIPTION OF HIS JOYOUS JOURNEY TO
ST. PETERSBURG, BESEECHING THE ALMIGHTY GOD
THAT IT ENDS PROSPEROUSLY AND WELL

by

Seid Abd al-Ahad Khan
(r. 1885-1910)

Translated and Annotated by

Meghan White
Christopher Roush
CONTENTS

List of Illustrations

A Note from the Editor

Introduction
Meghan White and Christopher Roush

The Journal of His Highness, the Emir of Bukhara
Translated by Meghan White and Christopher Roush

Text of the Russian Translation, by Ismail Bey Gasprinskii

Text of the Persian Original

Illustrations

Bibliography

Index